

Dr. and Mrs. North are visiting A. McKenzie and family this week.

Chas. Sandford, Cyrus Richmond and Leck Wamsley are out on a ten days' hunting trip.

Otto Menger has returned from Pueblo where he has been under treatment for the past month. He is much improved and ready to take up his duties at the post office.

George Bushnell has been quite ill with the measles for the past week.

W. B. Plunkett and family spent several days in the city this week.

Alvin Alford has been quite ill for the past week but is much improved to-day.

J. A. Barton is building a residence on his ranch out near the Sceneca. Jim Pyles is assisting.

Our fellow townsman Bob Isaacs justly merited the unsought for complimentary vote which he received in the democratic convention for the office of county treasurer.

Col. Bill Young, of Kenton, forwarded to the CITIZEN office this week the largest turnip ever raised west of the Mississippi river. The turnip measured a little over two feet in circumference and was built in proportion. It was grown on the colonel's river bottom farm. We extend thanks.

We call your attention to the double page advertisement of M. Herzstein & Co. on the inside pages of this paper. They are offering great bargains each week.

Cal Clelland and wife were in the city for a couple of days this week from their ranch.

An eighteen year old son of J. Cox, living between here and Texline, died from an abscess on the brain, Wednesday morning and the remains were interred in the Clayton Cemetery Friday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as candidate for School Superintendent, and respectfully solicit your vote and influence at the election, November 6th, 1906.

MORRIS C. JOHNSON,

I hereby announce myself as candidate for School Superintendent, and respectfully solicit your vote and influence at the election, November 6th, 1906.

LUCIANO CASTILLO,

Do you love an evening of amusement? If so, come and see the Orpheum Road Show Co.

Conference Appointments.

The New Mexico Mission Conference, held at Roswell, closed its work last Sunday night when the Bishop read the appointments. Among the changes of interest to our readers, are the following: Rev. M. Blair was appointed superintendent of the work, replacing Dr. Morrison, who goes to Butte Montana. Rev. J. L. Freeman is returned to Kenton, Rev. H. C. Grimmel to Clayton and Folsom, Rev. H. Van Valkenburg who was at Raton goes to Vegas and Rev. Reace comes to Raton.

The session was a most successful one. There was an advancement in every department. A larger membership, a greater number of Sunday schools and churches are reported, the benevolent collections are far in advance of last year.

The next session will be held at Albuquerque. Clayton received next to the highest number of votes and that, too, with five other places in the field asking for the next meeting.

A Change of Date.

Dr. Albert J. Caldwell, specialist on the Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat will be in Clayton October 31st, for ONE DAY ONLY. His patients and the public will please take notice.

Strictly Cash.

Mr. O. W. Coffee begs to inform his many friends and patrons that on the 1st of November he will commence a strictly cash business. Mr. Coffee trusts that his patrons will take this as it is meant—in the utmost good will. The fact that he must pay cash for all coal before it is taken from the car makes it necessary to deal on a cash basis.

Society Events.

Liz Sneed and the Walton gal's a visitin Sue Snider and Sue she giv a party and axed most evrybody an thar kdh, and nerly evrybody kum with thar best Sunday cloz on. Tht boys hed thar boots an hair grezed and wud as frisky as young colts, and the gals want one whit behind but looked as purty and rosy as apples in November. The young folks played games and some of the old folks to. And anon or about that time Sue she past the apples and pi and striped store candy an Bob Ervein an Net Hll they tuk the priz fur warin the stuningest close and singin tht loudest. Evrybody had a powerfud gud tim an wisht Sue'd hev another party lik thet.

Mrs. Thomas Shelton Snyder and Miss Snyder received Tuesday afternoon, October 23rd, complimentary to Mrs. John Beal Sneed and Miss Sneed. Mrs. Snyder and Miss Snyder were assisted by their guests of honor, Mrs. D. W. Snyder, Miss Walton and Miss S. I. North. Mrs. R. P. Ervein and Mrs. W. (R. Mc) Queen presided in the dining room where the guests were served to dainty refreshments.
